

Main duties as a Trustee

These are the things we need Trustees of Camden Disability Action to do:

1.		Work with other Trustees on the Board to help make sure it can set the direction of CDA and make sure it meets its legal responsibilities and charitable aims
2.		To make sure that the organisation follows the Memorandum and Articles of Association, charity and company law and any other relevant legislation or regulations.
3.		To make sure that Camden Disability Action works to meet its aims and objectives and supports Disabled people in Camden to have a strong voice and promote Disabled people's rights and inclusion.
4.		To make sure that Camden Disability Action only works and spends money to meet its aims and objectives.
5.		To make sure the Board gives Camden Disability Action a clear and strong strategic direction.

6.		To make sure Camden Disability Action is run well.
7.		To make sure Camden Disability Action has enough money now and in the future and that its money and other assets are well looked after.
8.		To protect the good name, reputation and values of the organisation, and act as a champion of Camden Disability Action to other people and organisations
9.		To take part in 4 Board meetings each year and the Annual General meeting
